

Historically, the control of the media has been a significant pillar in the swaying of public opinion and influencing the thoughts and actions of nations. It has been used for tremendous good and evil. Putting this powerful force in the hands of a few huge companies which have profit as their only guide is dangerous. Please retain the current ownership rules on June 2nd. Our country will be better off if you do.